PROVISIONAL BALLOTS COMPLETE Breakdown from Recorder's Office

Pima County Recorder, F. Ann Rodriguez, announced that her office has completed the verification process of the provisional ballots that voters were issued on Election Day. The Recorder's Office received 18,150 Provisional ballots and 208 Conditional Provisional ballot forms from the Pima County Elections Department following the closing of polling locations on Election Day. The Recorder's Office has completed the review of all provisional ballots prior to the statutory deadline. The completed provisional ballots have been turned over to the Department of Elections for tabulation.

Of the 18,358 forms processed, a total of 16,210 were determined to be valid and were approved to be counted. That is a validity rate of just over 88%. F. Ann Rodriguez stated, "In our processing of the Provisional ballots, I directed my staff to track the reason why a voter's ballot was issued and whether the ballot was valid or disqualified." Included below is the breakdown by reason code for the Provisional ballots.
