PRESS RELEASE

CHECK RETURN ADDRESS ON VOTER REGISTRATION MAIL

This year, the Pima County Recorder's Office will send about 2 million pieces of mail to voters including notices and Early Ballots. Citizens may receive mail from outside organizations too. These organizations are not endorsed by the Pima County Recorder, and the Recorder did not provide voter addresses to them.

Pima County residents should check the return address to confirm that mail is from the Pima County Recorder. Mail from the Pima County Recorder will also include the "Official Election Mail" graphic on the envelope. If residents have questions regarding any piece of mail, please call the Pima County Recorder Office at 520-724-4330.

Voters may check registration status by telephone, or online at:

www.recorder.pima.gov/VoterStats/VoterInfo .
