CONSOLIDATED SPRING ELECTIONS

TOWN OF MARANA, TOWN OF SAHUARITA & CITY OF SOUTH TUCSON

VOTER REGISTRATION DEADLINES!

For information about polling place ID requirements, please contact the Pima County Division of Elections at (520) 724-6830, or visit their web site at www.pima.gov/elections.

The Town of Marana, Town of Sahuarita and the City of South Tucson will be conducting general elections for ballot questions and council seats on May 21, 2013. Pima County Recorder, F. Ann Rodriguez notes that in order for voters of these municipalities to cast their ballots, they must be registered to vote not later than MIDNIGHT, April 22, 2013.

The Town of Sahuarita and the Town of Marana will hold all vote-by mail general elections, and every registered voter in each Town will receive a mailed ballot. The City of South Tucson will conduct elections with both vote-by-mail and election day voting at the polls being available to voters in that community. Registered voters residing in the City of South Tucson may request a vote-by-mail ballot now for their community's May 21, 2013 General Election by calling the Pima County Recorder's office at (520) 724-4330. Voters who are signed up for the Permanent Early Voting List will automatically receive their General Election ballot.
