FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

2017-November Consolidated Election

Pima County Recorder, F. Ann Rodriguez would like to remind everyone that this November Pima County is conducting many jurisdictional elections from cities, schools and fire districts for what we call a Consolidated Election. This election will be focused on various local issues and/or local elected offices. Your ballot will be specific to the jurisdictions you live in. A major portion of the county will be receiving a Ballot by Mail ballot. The Pima County Recorder will be sending out almost 400,000 ballots on Wednesday, October 11, 2017.

To be eligible to vote in the 2017-November Consolidated Election you must be registered in one of the participating jurisdictions in Pima County by Tuesday, October 10, 2017. The Pima County Recorder's Office Downtown and Eastside locations are open on Columbus Day, October 9, 2017.

There are a number of ways that people can complete their voter registration:

- The easiest way is to go to www.servicearizona.com and complete the registration online. Voters can access this site directly or through the Recorder's website at www.recorder.pima.gov at the link for "EZVoter". You must have your current address on file with MVD before using this option.

- Forms are available at multiple locations throughout the county: any Pima County Recorder's office, any Arizona Department of Motor Vehicle branch, all post offices and libraries, political party headquarters, and city/town halls.
- Voters can download a form directly from the Recorder's website, complete it and mail it in.
- For more information, voters may call the Pima County Recorder's office at 724-4330. Although you cannot make changes to your voter registration over the phone, our staff is always available to answer any questions voters may have.

Ms. Rodriguez encourages voters, "to check their voter registration information prior to Tuesday, October 10th to ensure your address is current so that your ballot will be mailed to the correct address. If you've had a recent change of address and have not updated your voter registration please do so as soon as possible."

To verify your voter information online go to the Pima County Recorder's Website at www.recorder.pima.gov and click on "Check Your Registration" or call our office at 520-724-4330.
